Remembering Curtis

Curtis Charles Harper was born on October 4, 1948, to Oscar and Rosie Harper in Shongaloo, Louisiana. Proceeding him in death is his father, mother and brother, L.V. Harper. He was the third of six children.

In 1956 the family moved to Houston, Texas where Curtis attended Fidelity Elementary School and High School. In 1963 Curtis moved to Hutchinson, Kansas in 1965 he met and married Helen Raya. In 1966 Curtis went to work for Winchester Beef Packing House where he retired after 25 plus years of service.

In 2000 Curtis moved back to Houston to be closer to his family and joined Macedonia church where he was a faithful member unto death, and song in the male chorus. He met his wife, Phyllis Hill-Harper at Macedonia where they were later married in 2006.

Curtis leaves to cherish his wife, Phyllis Hill-Harper; one son, Curtis Jr.; two daughters, Tamara and Latricia Harper; two sisters, Nettie Thomas and Gloria Teamer; two brothers, Douglas and Jerry Harper; stepchildren, Joshua, Joshua II, and Johnathyn Young along with six grandkids and 9 greatgrandchildren. He also leaves special people Kevin Thomas, Ida Watkins, and Mercy Handy, three sisters-in-law, Ira, Neva and Constance Hill; many nieces, nephews, Cousins, friends, and his Macedonia family. Curtis C. will be missed. He loved his wife, children, and family. He lived a life of Christ and was a changed man. Gone but not forgotten and forever in our hearts.

Tributes of Love

To My Love Curtis C.

When we fell in Love, I gave you, my heart.
When we got married, I gave you my word, and as long as I live.
I will give you my love, it's not the end. I see you later Curtis C.

-Phyllis Harper

Tribute To Our Daddy

You are forever gone yet not forgotten. Although we are apart your spirit lives within us. Daddy you will forever be in our hearts we love you

-Curtis C. Harper Jr. and Tamara Harper

Tribute To The Man We Called Our Paw Paw

No farewell words were spoken no time to say good-bye. You were our everything, gone but not forgotten. Forever in our hearts. We love you Paw Paw.

-Joshua and Boys

Tribute to our Brother and Uncle

You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. If love could have saved you, you would have lived forever.

-Nettie, Doug, Jerry, Gloria, Kevin, Ida, and Mercy

Tribute To our Grandfather

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again. See you later Grandfather.

-Your Grandchildren
