Obituary

Mildred Mae Smoke was born on October 1, 1941 in Mobile, AL to the union of Cleveland and Nona Smoke.

She received her education in Mobile County schools, including Central High school where she would later meet and marry the love of her life, Charles Milton Sr. in 1959. After relocating to Houston, TX, the two welcomed two loving children, Miltoria & Charles Jr.

She found her church home at New Beginning Non-Denominational Church, under the leadership of the late Bishop Larry L. Stevens, and there she would later accept her calling as an ordained Minister. She would touch the lives and leave a special mark on everyone who encountered her.

Heaven opened its gates and welcomed her home on September 19th, 2023.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Cleveland & Nona Smoke; sister, Bessie Lee; brothers Cleveland Smoke, James Smoke and Charles Smoke; one daughter, Miltoria Milton; grandson, Kendrick Milton; granddaughters L'Mesia Milton, Jerzee Randall and lifelong friend, Emma Horn.

In her loving memory, she leaves to cherish her devoted and loving husband of 65 years, Charles M. Milton, Sr.; one son, Charles Milton, Jr; one sister, Nona Jean Smoke; five granddaughters, Taneshea Milton, Shellysia Milton, Myshanique Milton, Delecia (Charles) Taylor, Nona Milton, Chelsea Milton and Ambria Milton; three grandsons Delon Milton, Kenneth Samuel & Sidney Trahan; seventeen great grandchildren; one goddaughter, Deshea Stevens; bonus daughters Vernita Trahan, Medina Anderson, Keisha Brown & LaChanda Authorlee & a host of nieces, nephews, family & friends.
