Tributes

The moment that you died my heart was torn in two one side was filled with heartache the other died with you.

I often lie awake at night while the world is fast asleep and take a walk down memory lane with tears running down my cheeks.

Remembering you is easy I do it everyday but missing you is heartache that never goes away.

I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain until that joyous day arrives that we will meet again. My little boy yesterday, my friend today, my son forever.

*Rest in Heaven, Son,
Mom*

Trinnance

I love you and going to miss my nephew/cousin, but rest your eyes we will see each other again..

Love, Carmen

"Trinnance"

I will always remember the laughs we shared together. The jokes we made with granny. The times we shared also.. When I think of you, I think of all the joy we had around each other, there was never a dull moment whenever you was around. Your smile brighten the room and your laughs were contagious. I wouldn't ask for a greater cousin or trade you for anyone in the world. I will cherish you in my mind, heart and soul forever. Your gone but never forgotten.

*I love you always & forever.
Love, Megan.*

Words just aren't simply enough to describe the joy and hope you brought my way. I am thankful for the love you allowed me to have for you. Although it may seem like this is the end, there is a place in my heart that let's me know it is not, you will forever be with me.

*I love you always,
Danielle*

Tre, you will always and forever be in my heart. I could never forget the times where whenever you would come over or when I would come and visit, you would always ask me if you could play my game. We would play for hours at a time and would at times give you the whole game so you can play it as much as you wanted whenever you was able to. I remember when you were first born and Johnny & Tiffany brought you home and me and granny came to the apartment and I saw you for the first time and was filled with joy because I got another cousin that I can play with. Your mother and father had such great plans for you both before and post birth to accomplish great things in life no matter the cards that life dealt you. They would brag on you ALL the time as they should because of the young man that you were developing into and the amount of Drive and growth that you had. Shortly after Jada was born and y'all were like the Dynamic Duo lol. Jada would always be asking for juice and you would be asking for noodles... All the damn time lmaoo. Y'all would pick at each other so much that no matter what was going on y'all both was there (often to make fun of one another). Even remembering times where Jada would see you and purposely mess with you while you playing the game and you would get so mad because she knew you were concentrating trying to play. And you use to mess with Jada about them hot Cheetos because you knew Jada didn't like to share and you would take more than what she wanted you to have and then she be trying to beat you up lol. But in the end it was all out of love. Seeing how both of y'alls personality complimented one another was a beautiful thing to witness and be apart of. Memories of y'all is something we will continue to cherish from the time we first meet and until we all meet again. Tre, you was like the little bother I always wanted, but never had. I love you so much, more than words can explain. I hate that I didn't get to say it enough but I knew that you knew that I love you and would do anything for you. Until next time. Gone but never forgotten...
