Words of Appreciation

Our hearts have been made to rejoice during the illness and passing of our loved one by the many acts of kindness extended to our family. Your prayers and all expressions of love and sympathy are greatly appreciated. May God's blessings of peace and love continue with you forever. I want to extend a special thanks to Pastor Carl Hall of No Greater Love Ministries, Pastor James L. Bell of Christ Community Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church and my friend Deborah Hernandez of Lilly Grove Baptist Church.

Obituary

Donald was born on Feb 23, 1960, to Sarah E. Johnson and Kerey McCall in Monroe, LA (Raised by George W. Smith) in Houston, TX. He was the middle child of 3.

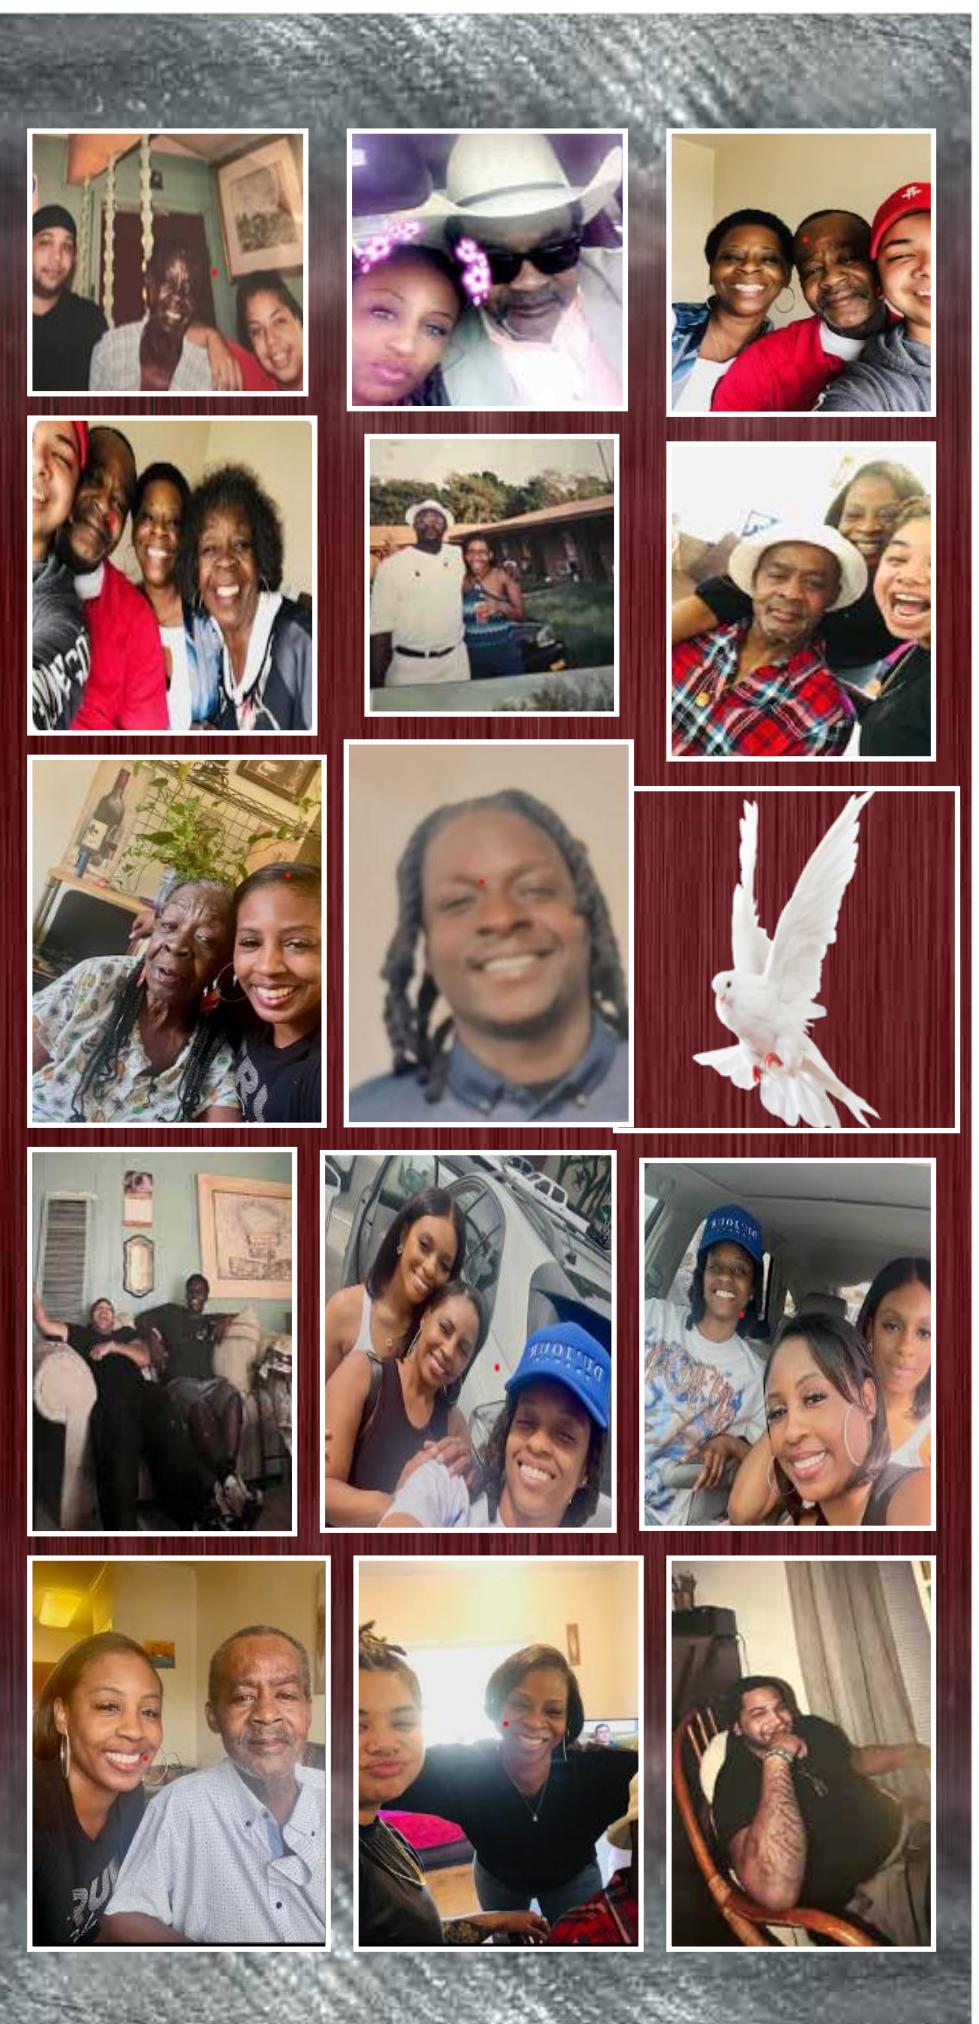

Donald attended BC Elmore, Furr High School and Jack Yates in Houston, Texas. He was known to be very charismatic as well as a keen dressed man. He also had a profound way with words and was very outspoken.

Donald's career started at Allstate Steel working as a welder with his Uncle Amos Hagan. He also worked at Roadway Express, Kenmore Electric and the Houston Chronicle in Houston, Texas.

Donald was baptized at a very young age and was a believer in Jesus Christ. Donald loved playing on the baseball team with his uncle Robert Lee Hagan. Donald was a family man and loved spending time with family, friends and his children. Donald loved cooking, joking, playing cards, playing dominoes, swimming and listening to music. There was no gathering without Donald.

Donald is preceded in death by; his brother (Ivory Lee Hagan) his son Matthew Hagan, and his niece Desirae Jack.

Poem

*Life Is Forever, Death Is a Dream
If we did not go to sleep at night
We'd never awaken to see the light.
And the joy of watching a new day break
Or meeting the dawn by some quiet lake,
Would never be ours unless we slept
While God and all His angels kept,
A vigil through this "little death"
That's over with the morning's breath.
And death, too, is a time of sleeping
For those who died are in God's keeping.
And there's a sunrise for each soul,
For life, not death is God's promised goal.
So trust God's promise and doubt Him never.
For only through death can man live forever!*
