Obituary

Gregory Dwayne Clay passed away on August 18, 2025 at the age of 60. He was born on October 18, 1964 to James B Clay, Sr & Agnes Carter Clay in Houston, Texas.

Gregory Dwayne Clay gave his life to Christ at an early age and was baptized at Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church. He graduated from the Debakey High School for Health Professionals and attended Morehouse College and Texas Southern University.

He was a beloved son, devoted brother, uncle and a true friend to many. He was known for his quick wit, candor, love of good food, passion for music, unselfish generosity, his infectious laugh, life of the party personality, his stylish fashion, and unwavering kindness to others. In his spare time, he enjoyed street ministries, shopping for eclectic finds, finding a restaurant for a great meal, gardening, and spending time with family and friends. He simply enjoyed having fun regardless of who was watching.

He dedicated years of service and campaign advocacy to the office of Texas State Representative Garnet Coleman's office and dedicated his latter years of life to a passion of volunteering at area food shelters and working at SER National SCSEP, where he was able to help the underprivileged to obtain needed government documents, build, enhance & update job skills.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James B Clay, Sr & Agnes Carter Clay, and his sister Linda Washington and brothers Charles Clay & James B. Clay, Jr.

Gregory Dwayne Clay is survived by his brothers Ray Clay (Brenda), David Clay (Gloria) and Byron Clay (Sandy). He is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Psalm 37:23-40 KJV

The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord: and he delighteth in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand. I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread. He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed. Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore. For the Lord loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment. The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide. The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him. The Lord will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged. Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it. I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree. Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found. Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace. But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off. But the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord: he is their strength in the time of trouble. And the Lord shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.
