EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE

We have lost someone very special to us. With sincerity and gratefulness, we offer our thanks to all of you who helped share our time of sorrow. During these trying hours, the presence of friends has been one of our sustaining elements. Your prayers have increased our faith. Your words have encouraged our hearts. Your presence has given us a warm arm to lean on. Your food has helps us to maintain our strength, the fragrance of the flowers, the thought of every card, the visits, the phone calls added a touch of beauty to a setting that was full of unrest. We pray each of you will be showered with God's blessings. ~ Love, the family

THE LEGACY OF MR. CARY DANIELS

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. For the former things are passed away."

Rev. 21:4

On May 9, 1955, a baby boy was born in Houston, Texas to Eloise Daniels and Jerry Scott. He accepted Christ in his life as a young adult.

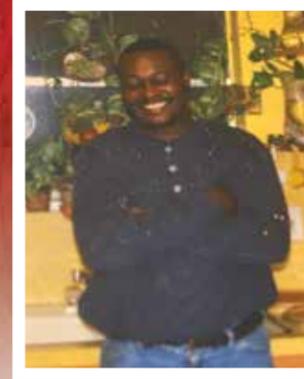

Cary was employed for many years with Cohen Industries.

Cary attended HISD schools and graduated from Jeff Davis High School. He was involved in athletics and loved basketball. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed spending time with his friend's playing dominos. He had no limits when expressing his love and affection to his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents Eloise and Jerry, his brother Nathaniel.

The life and love of Cary will linger in the memories of his children Derrick Sr. (Patricia), Byron Sr., Traci and Funtella. Grandchildren, Derrick Jr., Makiya, Makhi, Byron Jr., Cymone, Tyus, Tharren, Herbert, DeShaun, Steven, Dion and KurShauna. Great Granddaughter Aylah. A host of relatives, family, friends and a special friend Mary Thorn.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh,
to love, to work or play.
Task left undone must stay that way.
I found peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you shine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me.
God wanted me now.
He set me free!*
