Obituary

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
-Matthew-5:4

On Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, November 23, 2023, life came to a close for LaTracy Weaver Alexander, affectionately known as 'Cookie' gained her wings.

LaTracy was born February 20, 1985 to Bobbie and Clayton Williams, Jr. in Houston, Texas. She is the 5th of six children. From birth, LaTracy was always shy, tenderhearted, and kind with that million dollar smile. Her father called her his "chocolate, hershey baby".

Growing up, LaTracy attended Smiley High School where she met the love of her life, her husband, Calvin Weaver Alexander. To this union 3 beautiful daughters were born, Aneria, Akira, and Asia Alexander. Her family was the love of her life. LaTracy loved her family dearly. They would get together for cookouts, birthdays, and family reunions. She was known as the one who loved to smile in her family.

Many loved ones are left to cherish LaTracy's memory: her parents, Bobbie and Clayton Williams, Jr.; husband, Calvin Weaver Alexander; 3 daughters, Aneria, Akira, and Asia; Mother-in-law, Mrs. Cynthia Alexander; 3 brothers, Stanford, Germaine, and Jermiah (Tasha) Williams; 2 sisters, LaStacey Williams, and Jennifer Williams (Ernest Davis); brother-in-law, Derrick Weaver (Latissa), sister-in-law, Calvina Weaver Alexander and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who will miss her dearly.
