

Tributes

To My Dad,

I was fortunate enough that the Lord blessed me with a father like you. A father who truly loved me with his whole heart, and then some. You were my confidant when I needed someone to confide in. You were my support system when I doubted myself and truly could not see the worth in my capabilities. I'll miss our late night nightcaps and corny jokes. But more importantly I'll miss your laugh. There's so much that's left unsaid but one thing remains: I love you.

To My Dear Husband,

Although you are no longer here with me, we are never really apart. I look back on the life we have built and the child we have raised and I couldn't be more happy. We have endured much together over the years that I can not imagine the future without my rock. I am proud to have called you my husband and my best friend. I thought we had more time, but God had bigger plans.

To Our Brother Bennie

Had we know that you were gathering your belongings to depart this world, we would have tried to stop you, only to hear you say, I did not come here to stay. My journey and purpose here on earth is complete, I'm going to a better place where there is peace, knowing that these are the words you would have spoken, in being a man of few words, we find comfort in knowing that you are in heavenly peace. We love and miss you, your last remaining brother, Quette and only sister, Breatha.
