Reflection of Life

*“So you have sorrow now, but I will see you again;
then you will rejoice and no one can rob you of that joy.”*

John 16:22

Virgie Lee Prejean Jackson-Arambula was born December 22, 1945, in Kansas City on a train enroute to Beaumont, Texas to her parents Lumos Prejean and Velma Charles-Green of Youngsville, Louisiana.

Virgie grew up and attended school in Natchitoches, LA before the family's arrival in Houston, Texas. She began her secondary education at Fidelity High School yet completed her education at Galena Park High School. Virgie was among the first class to integrate Galena Park High School in Galena Park, Texas.

Virgie was a steward of compassion that left an enormous impact on her social and professional communities. She believed in extending respect and empathy to all and embodied these ideals in her everyday life.

Virgie departed this life and entered eternal rest on May 26, 2022.

Virgie is preceded in death by her parents, Lumos Prejean and Velma Charles-Green; sisters, Linda Richardson and Elma Lee Orr; and brothers, Gilbert Prejean and Leo Green.

She leaves to cherish her memories four children: Rodney Jackson Sr. (Yoldania), LaMonica Jackson-Rideaux (Phillip), Kevin Jackson (Kelly), and Genea Arambula; three sisters Anna Lee Jenkins (“Brother”), Leona Rushing (Robert), and Margaret Green; twelve grandchildren, thirteen great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives, friends, and loved ones.

Order of Service

*“For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us.”
Romans 8:18*

Family Tributes of Love

"Mom, your endless love has made a difference in who we've become! We will forever cherish all the happy times together, remember your warm & beautiful smile, the meaningful lessons, and your kind heart in all that we do! Your wings were ready, but our hearts were not. You are forever in our hearts."

-Your Children: Rodney, LaMonica, Kevin, and Genea

"Virgie, I'm missing you already and things will never be the same. I know that you could have given up on me many times, but you didn't. And anytime I called you would come running. So Sis/Mom rest, your work down here is done. Your love will forever be remembered! I love you, Virgie!"

-Your Little Sister, Margaret

"Virgie, I will miss you so much. You raised me ever since I was 16 years old, right after our mom passed away. We have had many heart to heart talks about any and everything. No more tears, no more pain, and no more sorrows. Rest in peace my Best Friend and my Beautiful Sister."

-Your Sister, Leona

"Grandmother, you were always so intriguing to me. I saw you as such a petite woman with the fiercest spirit and most radiant smile. You taught me the phrase, "different strokes, for different folks" and embodied it through your relentless aim to always do right by people. Your kindness knew no bounds, nor did your tolerance for injustice. Beyond this, I could count on you to always be on the go, exploring someplace fun & new, and in return that taught me to always seek adventure; to always seek joy. You had an immense gratitude for life, and I hope that I get to live a life that's as fulfilling as the one you've shared with me. I promise to carry your wonder for life in each new travel adventure. Your love is with me forever."

-Your Granddaughter, LaMicha

"This is the hardest thing I've ever had to go through. From as far back as I can remember you've always been my number one supporter from t-ball to college football. You've always been there screaming my name. No matter how packed a stadium was I always knew you were in the stands cheering for me. You will always be known for being a kind and loving woman that could make a stranger feel like family. If someone was in need and you didn't have it, you found a way to get it for them. You were a true servant of the Lord. I know you're feeling a million times better and you're in a better place now. I love you so much. See you later, Alligator!"

-Your Grandson, Zorhan

"Grandmother, I have so many things I haven't had the chance to say, but you always understood what I needed. I am forever grateful for you being in my life. Your place will always be beside us, and someday we will stand beside you. Til we meet again."

-Your Grandson, Tawayne

"Being my grandmother is just one of the many titles you hold. You were the disciplinary when I got out of line, the nurturer when I needed love, and the motivator when I doubted myself. Grandmother, you helped me become the woman I am today and I'm grateful I had you in my life and for that I want to thank you."

-Your Granddaughter, Amber

"Nana, you have always been there for me during both my high and low times. You were my champion, and you were always on the road to come get me, even if it was for a day. Knowing I had you to talk to when I couldn't talk to my mama made me feel so loved. You are the person that helped to mold me into the great man I'm going to become. I'm going to forever love and miss you."

-Your Great Grandson, Jason

"We think about you always, we talk about you still, you have never been forgotten, and you never will. We hold you close within our hearts, and there you will remain, to walk and guide us through our lives, until we meet again."

-Your Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren: Kerwin, Jasmyne, Taylor, Ariel, Caroline, Royce, Kehlani, Moses Jr., Michira, Rosalie, Renesmee, Amelia, Sayge, Malachi, Ivy, Avery, Lucas, and Elias

"Grandmother, you were always with us. Coming to eat breakfast with us on grandparents' day was one of our favorites because it was just us. We will miss you on our trips, you were so much fun. We miss and love you. Thank you for being the best grandmother"

-Your Granddaughters, Bailey, Neveah Lee
