

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path God laid for me
 I took his hand when I heard him call,
 I turned my back and left it all
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work or play
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I've found that peace at the close of day
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
 My life's been full, I've savored much,
 Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
 If my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
 Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Theodore Gaston Bossette, Sr., (Teddy), was born on October 26, 1940 to Albeno Juan and Sadie Bell Bossette in Beaumont, Texas. He was one of fourteen born to this union. Teddy was a graduate of Charlton Pollard High School in 1960. He attended Lamar Tech until he joined the United States Air Force in 1961.

While in the Air Force he studied Jet Engine Mechanics and Air Conditioning and Refrigeration. While stationed in Oklahoma, he met and married Willie Mae Stephens, from this union four children were born. After being discharged, the couple moved to Houston, Tx.

Upon his return to Texas, Teddy went back to school to obtain a diploma in Tech Illustrator and later Commercial Draftsman Certification. Teddy worked for Dynalectron Corporation in the Aerospace Operations Division at Ellington Air Force from 1968 -1973.

In 1973, Teddy got his dream job when he was hired by Northop, Services, Inc. a contractor at NASA. He worked as a Senior Design Drafter. The experiences he had on this job gave him a lifetime of memories that he loved to share with anyone that would listen. Teddy had the responsibilities of providing technical leadership and safety practices to insure an efficient operation with line communication with NASA Project Engineers.

Teddy was a devoted family man that was very involved in the community, politics and his kids' schools.

Preceding him in death are his wife, Willie Mae Stephens Bossette; his parents, Albeno and Sadie; four sisters, Mary, Gloria, Barbara, and Patsy; four brothers, Rodger, Billy, Joe and Foris.

He leaves to cherish his memories four children, Billy (Sabrina), Theodore Jr., Djuana Kai, and EVELDA; seven grandchildren, Jonathan (Terretta), Darryl, Tyler, April, Adrian Willie, Colin and Jamail; seven great-grandchildren; two sisters, Sharon and Fredericka; three brothers, Beno Jr., Eddie (Patricia) and Henry (Lorita) and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
