

Tributes of Love

I AM LEARNING HOW TO LIVE

I am learning how to live
In a new way
Since that day
You were taken away.

I am learning how to live
With the things left unsaid
Knowing I got to say them
With every tear that I shed.

I am learning how to live
By embracing the pain
Knowing that you live on
Through the memories that remain.

I am learning how to live
Knowing I will never again see your face
And I have peace knowing
You're in a better place.

I am learning how to live
Knowing you're in God's care
It gives me the strength to move on
And makes the pain much easier to bear.

Love your wife, Mary Jackson

Obituary

Michael Irvin Jackson was born on December 23, 1962 in Memphis, Tennessee to Henry Jackson, Sr., and Mertha Jackson. He was the 3rd of six children. He was preceded in death by his parents and daughter Rachel Jackson.

Michael accepted Christ as his personal Savior in his early teens and was baptized. He met and married Mary Brown on September 7, 1995 and this year they celebrated 25 years of marriage. To this union two daughters were born.

Michael better known as "Michael D" as he was affectively known was employed with the City of Houston at the time of his death. Mike united with the Pentecostal Missionary Baptist church on May 28, 2000. While serving at Pentecostal, Michael was past president of the Recovery Ministry. He was a member of the Men's Discipleship Class, Might Men Bible Class, Brotherhood, Youth Supervisor and Drama Ministry. He was a part of the tribe of Simeon.

Mike loved playing basketball, dominoes and golfing with the fellas. He also enjoyed the annual trips that he would take with his church family. The last trip that he took was to Lake Tahoe and what a time that was had. He talked about how beautiful it was up on the mountains. Just imagine how beautiful the place is he is at now.

He leaves to cherish all of his wonderful memories, his devoted wife Mary Jackson, Children: Diamond Taylor, Keirra & Mya Jackson, Grandchildren: Zian Castilow & Araya Byrd. Brothers: Henry Jackson, Sr., (Sherry) of Austin, Texas, Curtis, Tyler and Marlon Jackson of Houston, Texas, Sister: Marica Jackson of Houston, Texas, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews his Pentecostal family and a host of friends.
