Obituary

Evelda Marie Bossette, was born on December 30, 1974, to Theodore and Willie Mae Bossette in Houston, Texas. She was one of four born to this union.

Evelda was a graduate of Forest Brook High School in 1993. She attended Houston Community College. While, attending high school she met and fell in love with Lorenzo Conner from this union three kids were born Tyler, April, and Adrian Conner

Throughout her life, she took great joy in cooking and baking, delighting in the opportunity to share delicious meals with others. Additionally, she had a passion for hairstyling, helping people took their best and feel confident. Her talents in both areas not only nourished the body but also uplifted the spirit. She was a talented young pianist with a captivating singing voice. As a cherished member of the choir, her musical abilities shone brightly, enriching the group's performances and leaving a lasting impression on all who heard her. She has a playful sense of humor and enjoys teasing her friends in a lighthearted way.

She found herself navigating a variety of jobs, each providing her with opportunity to meet a diverse array of individuals. Through these experiences, she forged lasting relationships that enriched her life. Fiercely loyal, she stood up for her loved ones with unwavering determination, ready to defend them against any challenges that came her way.

Preceding her in death are her mother and father, Willie Mae Bossette and Theodore Bossette, both set of grandparents and a great nephew Jaylen.

She leaves to cherish her memories three siblings, Billy (Sabrina), Theodore Jr., and Djuana Kai; three children Tyler, April, Adrian Willie Conner and one grandson Braelyn and a host of nephews, other relatives and friends.

"Dear Mom"

*To our mom, so dearly loved,
Now resting in the skies above.
We feel your absence, deep and wide,
Yet know you're with us, by our side.*

*You've taught us how to love, to be,
Guiding us to what we can't yet see.
Your wisdom shaped the hearts we wear,
A legacy of strength and care.*

*No more pain, no more tears,
You've found peace, beyond our fears.
But still, we feel you, soft and near,
Your spirit whispering, crystal clear.*

*You left a space that none can fill,
But in our hearts, you linger still.
You're our angel, watching from above,
Guiding us with endless love.*

*Through tough times, when hope feels thin,
Stand with us, as we begin
To walk the path you once knew well,*

With your light, we will prevail.

*We love you, Mom, now and always,
Your memory shines through all our days.
Though you're gone, you will never part,
Forever with us, in our hearts.*
