Life Well Lived

A life well lived is a precious gift, of hope and strength and grace, from someone who has made our world a brighter, better place.

It's filled with moments, sweet and sad with smiles and sometimes tears, with friendships formed and good times shared, and laughter through the years.

A life well lived is a legacy, of joy and pride and pleasure, a living, lasting memory our grateful hearts will treasure.

Acknowledgement

The family of Eric D. Booker would like to thank you for the many acts of loving-kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement. Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part. God knows how much it meant to us. Your thoughtfulness is deeply appreciated and will always be remembered.

Obituary

Eric D. Booker was born March 31, 1979, in Atlanta, Ga to Eric Booker and Demetrius Strozier. He received his formal education in Atlanta Public Schools, graduating from Alonzo Crim High School in 1997 where he played in the marching band. He went on to further his education at Morris Brown College.

Eric had a long career in transportation, logistics and retail. His longest being as a regional parts supervisor at Greyhound Lines.

On July 27, 2013, he married Morgan Howard in Los Angeles, California. Eric and Morgan were married for 9 years but shared 11 years of love together.

Eric was a beloved husband, father, brother, uncle and friend. He was an avid sports fan, loved to travel and had a knack for finding amazing food. He loved to laugh, joke and mostly talk smack to everyone.

He was preceded in death by his parents. He leaves to cherish, his loving wife Morgan, his daughter Javon Boyd, his sisters Ashley Jones and Erin Booker along with a host of brother and sisters in law, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Tributes of Love

Eric, I love you! With all my heart, soul, body and mind, I love you. You've been more than a husband. You're my greatest supporter, biggest encourager and best friend. The time that we shared together seems endless now. You showed me what love is and my heart is forever changed. It has been my greatest pleasure being your wife. Take your rest now my love. I'll see you on the other side.

-Morgan Esther

In Memory of my Dad in Heaven

If I could write a story, it would be the greatest ever told. Of a kind and loving father who had a heart of gold. I could write a million pages, but there's one thing I would say. Just how much I love and miss him every single day. I know he always loved me. I may be hurt, but I won't be sad. I know he'll send down the answers because he'll always be my Dad.

Love, Muffin

May the roads rise up to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sunshine warm your face. And until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

Love, Ashley

To My Dear Brother

There is a special kind of bond that a brother and sister share. I thank God for allowing me to have you. That special bond and friendship that we share was unmatched. Such an amazing vessel full of life and laughter. My heart aches day after day since you've been gone, but I know you have gained your angel wings and watch over each of us. Get your rest now and sleep well my good brother, until we meet again.

Love, Black
