Obituary

Kyeon O'shae Lee better known as "Woo" was born on November 20, 1996 in Houston, Texas to Rhonda Kay Evans and Marco James Lee.

Kyeon accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Sweet Home Missionary Baptist Church until his death. Kyeon loved to mime and sing and was a faithful member. Kyeon loved his family, but the love of his life was his daughter Kailei. He attended North Shore Senior High School and graduated from there in 2016. Kyeon loved making others laugh and impersonating others. His greatest joy was being a father.

God called this angel home on Sunday, February 13, 2022.

Kyeon is preceded in death by his great-grandmother Frankie Lee Evans.

He leaves to cherish his memories to his loving and devoted mother Rhonda Kay Evans, father Marco James Lee. His daughter Kailei Jade Lee. Two sisters, J'Cortny Cadoree and J'Anese Bell. Two brothers; Jamicah Ivory and Clifton Ford Jr. Grandparents; Mary Joyce Evans and Alvena Lee. Great-grandfather; Larry Evans. God parents Janice Evans and Sherita Evans. His right-hand Princess Rice. A host of aunts, uncles, other relatives, and friends.

A Letter to my Son

Hey Woo. It's not hard for me to talk to you because I did it all the time. Man I miss you already. I'm not sad that you had to go I just wish that it didn't have to be right now. SO much is happening, well no its not. Kailei just wont let me make it and to be honest I don't want her to. I gained a daughter but you knew that already. Mike is stepping up as the little big brother. Cortny is missing her twin but she understands. Tigger wants to argue with you, and Boonkie well he asked to go to Valero. I guess what I'm trying to say is we gone be alright. It's time for you to get that rest you been needing. Alright boy, I'll see you later. Love you forever Woo.

Love, Your Mother
