OBITUARY

Michael Deray Castillo was born on the blessed and beautiful day of September 30, 1999 to the proud parents of JoLinda Castillo and Michael Malone, In Houston, Tx. Michael was a happy baby. He grew to love being around family, Music and sports.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory, his devoted mother, JoLinda Castillo; His devoted Father Michael Malone; beloved brothers TJ, DeAndre, Desmond and Derreon, his grandmothers: Debra Turner and Margie Castillo and host of uncles, cousins, relatives and dear friends who will forever treasure his memory.

Michael lived life to the fullest, always reminding those around him that "we need to enjoy life cause no day is promised so let your family know you love them." He faithfully reached out to loved ones, ensuring they knew how much he cared, always ending every conversation with the words, "I love you."

His life was a blessing, his memory a treasure, and his love will remain in our hearts forever.

Hey my baby.

I'm laying in bed listening to "Who You'd Be Today" by Kenny Chesney on repeat with my thoughts consumed by you. This song will forever be my dedication to you. Losing you has been the hardest thing I've ever had to endure in my life. My world came crumbling down and I feel so lost, it just doesn't feel real. Everyday I wait for this nightmare to end so I can wake up and see you bouncing up the sidewalk with that big smile proudly showing all 32s (as TJ says) and hear you say Ah-MA! I want to hear how your day at work was, or just when you're needing to talk. I'm gonna miss hearing how hype you would get about your brand and the designs you have planned. God knows I'd give anything to see your smile and hear your laughter and just hug you one more time and tell you how much I love you! Everytime I close my eyes, I only see you from when I first gave birth to you, to seeing you when you were a chubby smiling baby, to seeing you through your school years, seeing you graduate and walk that stage was such a proud moment! You became such a handsome, respectful, good hearted young man who loved his family no matter what. And no matter how grown you became, you were still my goofball son! We got each other's cartoon jokes from Family Guy and King of the Hill amongst so many others. One of your favorite shows is coming back out with 2 new seasons! I'll be watching Regular Show and talking to you at the same time, wishing you were there with me. I'm going to miss so much about you! There just isn't enough time in the day to tell you everything on my mind and in my heart. I'll continue to have my own private conversations with you though, that won't ever stop. Just know you are sorely missed and this ache in my heart won't be gone until I see you again. I'll forever carry you in my heart my baby. I love you to the moon and back.. Love, your Ah-MA

MEMORIES

TRIBUTES

DEAR MIKE,

It still doesn't feel real writing this...part of me keeps expecting to hear your voice, your laugh, or even coming down to Houston to see you like nothing has ever changed. But life did change, and it hasn't been the same without you. You weren't just my older brother, you were someone I looked up to, someone who shaped me in ways I didn't even realize at the time. The lessons, the jokes, the moments we shared...they're all pieces of me now. I carry you with me every single day. In how I move, how I think, and how I push forward. There's so many things I wish I could say to you in person, so many conversations we didn't get to finish. But if I could tell you anything right now, it would be thank you. Thank you for the memories, the guidance, the love, and most importantly, thank you for being YOU Mike. I miss you more than words can really explain.

Not just the big moments, or the small moments, but ALL moments. The random deep talks about life, the animated jokes to go with your stories, and the energy you had that uplifted everyone around you. You may not be here physically, but the impact you left on all of us will stick forever.

*Until we meet again, I love you forever.
—Your lil brother, Desmond*

LIL MIKE

My whole life growing up during ice breaker games in school I would always get asked "How many siblings do you have?" My answer would always be "three" and my friends would look at me crazy like I was lying because they had only ever seen two of them. I've gone my whole life correcting people to make sure they would always know I had THREE brothers. Although we hadn't met each other until just a few years ago, it was like we had gone our whole life growing up together. I know we didn't have the most communicative relationship, but every time we did talk to each other you would always check on me and make sure I was doing great. You made it known that you would always be there for me no matter what the situation was and for that I will be forever grateful. I love you always Lil Mike. "Goodbyes are only for those who love with their eyes. Because for those who love with their heart and soul, there is no such thing as separation."

-Your Little Brother, Derreon

LIL MIKE,

Writing this letter to you is the hardest thing I could ever do. I miss you so much! I miss your smile, your laughter, I miss being a father to you, giving you advice and just seeing how excited you were about everything that you did, especially your clothing brand. This is a hurt that I can't explain! All I know is I feel lost without you right now. I'm hurt that God called you home, but I understand and I don't question God. The only thing is that I miss you so much and I know I will ever be happy the same without you. One thing for sure, two things for certain, we will live through your legacy and I promise you, daddy will finish taking care of the business at hand. I love you Mike Mike.

Love and Broken, Pops

Hi mijo, grandma is missing you Soo much, I wish that God had taken me instead of you baby, you know how much I love you, you left me with a broken heart, I still can't believe that you are not with us, but I trust in our Lord, he knows why and your not here. My neph Mike,

Even though you left us so early, you made a huge impact in all of our lives. At the same time, you also left a hole in our hearts only your big smile and laugh could fill. I will always love you and will NEVER forget the times we had as a family these wonderful 26 years you blessed us with your loving soul.

Your loving Unk, Johnny C Castillo
