Family Gratitude

There's an open gate at the end of the road. Through which each must go alone, and there is a light we cannot see. Our Father claims His own; Beyond the gate our loved one finds Happiness and rest, and there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best.

We would like to thank everyone who made our day brighter by expressing your care with prayers, cards, flowers, and other acts of kindness. In due time, we hope to personally express our gratitude to each of you who comforted us. This we intend to do when our hearts again lifted.

Smile down on us , you're forever in our hearts. All your children we all miss you so dearly ! I'm gone miss you saying "alrightee". I love all that we shared.

My beautiful Queen B. I dread the day our laughs, and talks would become a memory. You were the most humble and positive person I knew. You've been the rock to our family for many years and now it's hard to say goodbye. I LOVE YOU more than these words can flow. Heaven gained a beautiful spirit August 4th, and that's a day I won't forget. I MISS YOU my grandma. Me and your great grandkids (Taylor & Grayson.) I know now I have a guardian angel watching over us. I'm going to try to be strong for you, I just pray you help me along the way.

I LOVE YOU BABY GIRL!!!! Your Ida da baba - Tashia

My beautiful grandmother you are no longer suffering anymore but I know it's selfish to say the pain that you left me with to go through of losing you is immeasurable. The memories you left behind is to always to remember and keep me strong through life of what amazing grandmother I had. I know now that you are in a such amazing safe place with your beautiful white dress on smiling down on us. To always remember you all I have to do is to look in sky to find the biggest star shinning because I know that's you
